Cheers to the New Year Sea Turtle Families!

It was wonderful to be back to school and see the smiling faces of our maturing young sea turtles!

This week, we explored a wide range of topics:

- types of galaxies
- dissection of owl pellets
- geometry (triangles, polygons)
- time telling
- solar system: planets

We will continue lessons on Planetology in the coming weeks as we prepare our friends for the GeoBee fundraiser in February. I will share more details the closer the date approaches.

Field Trips

This week we have a couple of school field trips planned:

- Wednesday, January 12th from 12:00pm-2:00pm - Studios of Key West with Ms. Bria! *Parents are welcome to join so long as you meet us at the Studios. Please note that STKW kindly requests that ALL students/parents wear a mask inside. Thank you!
- Friday, January 14th at 8:00pm at the Tennessee Williams Theater will feature the musical production of Matilda.

Planning Ahead

-No School on January 17th as we commemorate Martin Luther King.

-Reminder that our school will be hosting our second All School Meeting on January 26 at 6:00pm under the Chickee.

-Early Dismissal Day January 28th.

I hope that all of you and your families had a wonderful holiday break. Now that we are back into our daily routines, it is important to be mindful of your health for our community's well being. If you or your child experience any unusual symptoms, please take caution and follow safety measures. I want to extend a special thank you to those families that quarantined or stayed home when they felt they were exposed.

As always, please feel free to contact me via email at anytime if you have any thoughts, questions or concerns or even better, if you would like to volunteer as a parent in any way...we can always get creative and make it happen! :)

Have a peaceful and healthy week!

P.S. I wanted to give a shout out to the families who came to join us for the Goodies and Crafts holiday event we hosted before the break. It was truly a special experience, thank you:)
